Shaping the Future of Alternatives in the Middle East

ALTInvest is the place to be for leading institutional investors and fund managers.

Connecting over 150 investment leaders active in the alternative investment sector, ALTInvest is a private summit designed to facilitate strategic partnerships and drive informed capital deployment across Private Equity, Private Credit and Venture Capital

Attendees can expect a sunset reception, a series of education-led and carefully curated private boardrooms and facilitated one-to-one meetings, alongside inspirational TED-style keynotes.

Here, long-term relationships are forged and essential insights exchanged, collectively shaping the future of alternatives in the Middle East.

Beyond the Summit: Curated Circles, Focused Dialogue, Deeper Insights.

Beyond our major summits and networking receptions, membership offers exclusive access to our Curated Leadership Circles. These are small-scale, private sessions designed for highly focused, in-depth discussions.

Held as intimate breakfasts, lunches, or dinners in Abu Dhabi, Riyadh and Dubai, each session is meticulously themed around a particular grouping, topic, or investment trend. We specifically invite both our investor and fund manager members to these circles based on their precise interests and investment remits.

- Engage in highly relevant, candid conversations with peers who share your exact challenges and opportunities.
- Gain actionable insights from a select group of experts and decision-makers in a private, trust-based environment.
- Forge deeper, targeted connections with individuals who understand your niche.

Designed to solve key challenges and explore new opportunities, and accelerate growth by tackling particular challenging areas head-on. Providing a unique platform to benchmark best practices, support each other and collectively advocate on key issues, fostering a truly influential and relevant community.
